

DIED,

In Havana, Nov. 4, Mr. William Collins, 19, son of Mr. John Collins, of Salem; he was an enterprising young man—at the time of his death he belonged to a schooner which sailed from Charleston, S. C. by the master of which he was much esteemed.

In North-Carolina, Maj Samuel Lindsay, 40; Dr. John Poythress; John B. 19, son of Belcher Fuller, Esq; Mrs Susannah Hooks, 73—She partook of a hearty dinner and died in half an hour; Mrs Della, consort of Mr. Westwood Jones; Mr. Howell Lewis, 89; Mrs Sarah, relict of the late James Alston, Esq

In Ohio, Capt Samuel Price, of the 1st reg't U. S light artillery.

In Cincinnati, (Ohio) on his return from Detroit, having served in the late campaign as Adjutant to the the 23th U. S. reg't, Lieut. Richard Prier.

In Plattsburgh, (N. Y) Capt. Bryant, of the 10th reg't U. S. infantry, and Capt. Copelin, also of the 10th reg't U. S. infantry,

In New-Haven, (Con.) Mrs Elizabeth, wife of Wm. W. Woolsey, Esq. 41.

On Saturday evening last, Mrs. Margaret Wash, in the seventy-fourth year of her age. Her funeral will proceed from No. 24, Back-st. this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at which time the friends of the family are requested to attend.